The main objective of the BCI series of conferences is to provide a forum for discussions and dissemination of research accomplishments in Computer Science and Information Technology and to promote interaction and collaboration among scientists from the Balkan countries and the rest of the world, and to encourage involvement of young researchers from the region. BCI'2026 conference accepts original papers dealing with both theory and/or practical aspects of wide areas of ICT including all topics listed below:

- Computer systems organization
- Networks
- Theory of Computation
- Information systems
- Computing methodologies
- Social and professional topics
- Hardware
- Software engineering
- Mathematics of computing
- Human-centered computing
- Applied Computing
- Natural Language Processing, LLMs

Papers reporting on developments, reviews, proposals, and project on Information Technology in South-East Europe in the following areas are also solicited:

- Governance (e.g. systems in place, policies, etc)
- Education (curricula issues, secondary and higher education, etc)
- Professional Issues (e.g. employment, Computer Societies, entrepreneurship, etc)
